Honoring Dan Jennings

Former Marlins GM & Mgr

Featuring

The Pedro Roast

About The Gala

As the primary fundraising effort of the Foundation each year, we will honor an active baseball luminary.

The Bragan Family is pleased to announce this year's honoree is Dan Jennings, former minor league player and longtime scouting genius. He served in the front office of the Tampa Rays and the Miami Marlins, where he rose to the position of Senior Vice-President & General Manager, and in a rarely seen move, accepted the role as Field Manager in May 2015 but was released by Miami in October after the season. Dan is currently a special assistant to the President for the Washington Nationals. Media celebrities scheduled to "roast" Pedro include Frank Frangie, Dan Hicken, Sam Kouvaris, David Lamm, Greg Larson, Brent Martineau, Jack O'Brien, Jeff Prosser, J.P. Shadrick and others who love baseball!

About Our Foundation

The Peter Bragan for Better Baseball Foundation is a nonprofit public charity under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make under IRC section 170. The Foundation funds NE Florida athletic scholarships and assists youth programs to promote the game of baseball and inspire young ballplayers to excellence. This year, the first scholarship grant has been awarded to UNF. The Jacksonville Baseball Museum in Jacksonville is in the initial planning stages. Monies raised from the Gala will fund these endeavors.
